

Acre-Gibson.

The marriage of Miss Beulah Irene Gibson, daughter of Charles W. Gibson, 1244 North Illinois street, to Dr. R. R. Acre of Evansville, Ind., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Acre, 3737 Guilford avenue, was solemnized this morning at the Spink-Arms, with the Rev. G. M. Smith of the Roberts Park M. E. Church officiating. The altar was banked with palms, orchid sweet peas and cathedral candles. Miss Helena Harrison, harpist, played "To a Wild Rose," and the Pi Beta Phi Sorority anthem preceding the ceremony. During the reading of the service she played, "I Love You Truly." The bride wore a suit of blue polret twill with a hat to match and carried a colonial bouquet of Aaron Ward roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Ruby Acre acted as maid of honor, and wore a suit of blue twill and a hat to match. Her flowers were orchid sweet peas. Dr. B. B. Moore, acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Acre left for a wedding trip at French Lick and will be at home to their friends after May 15, at 114½ Cherry street, Evansville, Ind.

Dr. Acre Goes to Indianapolis to Wed

Dr. R. R. Acre of the United States public health service in the city, left for Indianapolis last night, with a blush upon his face and a sensation of rice in his hair, premonitions of the happy event in his marriage to Miss Beulah Gibson, of the capital city, within the week.

For the last nine months Dr. Acre has had charge of the venereal clinic. During that period he has established himself at the Vendome hotel.

Friends recently became suspicious of Dr. Acre's conduct when they discovered him wandering over the city searching for apartments. His only answer to their many inquiries was that he was tired of living in hotels.
